Youth Media Release & Usage Policy

Revive Ministries, Inc.

Purpose

This policy and release outlines how Revive Ministries, Inc. (Revive) may capture, use, and share photographs, video, and audio recordings of youth participating in Revive programs, events, or activities, as well as the duration of use after a youth's participation ends, with parent/guardian consent.

1. Consent to Use Image & Likeness

By signing this release, I authorize Revive, its representatives, and partners to photograph, record, and film my child/youth in connection with their participation in Revive programs, events, or activities. I grant permission for my child/youth's image, voice, and likeness to be used in organizational materials, including but not limited to:

- Website and social media content
- Printed publications, newsletters, and brochures
- Marketing, promotional, and fundraising materials
- Training, internal communications, and educational resources

2. Duration of Use

This consent will remain in effect unless I provide a written request to revoke it. In cases where materials have already been published or distributed prior to a withdrawal request, Revive is not obligated to remove or recall those materials.

3. Ownership & Rights

All photographs, recordings, and related media captured by or for Revive are the property of the Revive, and I understand that neither my child/youth nor I have rights of ownership or control over them. I waive any right for my child/youth or I to inspect or approve finished products or the specific use of my child/youth's image/likeness.

4. No Compensation

I understand that my child/youth's participation and the use of their image/likeness are voluntary and that neither I nor my child/youth will receive payment, royalties, or other compensation for their use.

5. Revocation of Consent

I may revoke this consent at any time by submitting a written request to the Marketing Design Specialist at igeraci@revivetomission.com. Revocation will not apply to materials already created, published, or in use prior to the date of the request.

Acknowledgment

I have read and understand this policy. I consent to the capture and use of my child/youth's image, voice, and likeness as described above.
